Derwood
Montgomery County
Maryland
Originally located on "The Ridge," estate of Robert Pottinger Magruder . Now part of Mill Creek Towne development. Remains moved to Laytonsville Cemetery in 1966. Stones not moved - a common stone with 9 names was erected at Laytonsville Cemetery.
Reserved from sale in the 1919 advertisement, the sellers promised that "no future interments will occur therein." Family tradition locates the plot about 300' behind the house to the west, an area now included in the Granby subdivision. That same source placed a slave cemetery behind the house to the north and west. in the area of the cabins. Of some 30 to 40 interments, only a few were marked by formal stones. No headstones are visible in either area.
