Description (markers, materials, arrangement, landscaping, fence, paths and roads, etc.)
 Four rows, fence around two graves, mowed. Cemetery is close to farmhouse and by roadway. Most stones are in good condition with some lichen that's easily brushed off. About half of the markers are well cut, some with elaborate inscriptions. Others are small and plain. Some are not hewn at all and are in the back - possibly slave burials? The two stones with earliest dates are slate and are in excellent condition. Land was formerly the Carson Pope Farm, also
