 There is a large variety of markers, with most older stones being unreadable.
 There are many veterans markers both upright and ground level bronze plaques. There are field stones throughout and some stones that appear to have been manually engraved. There are two roads into the cemetery on both the north and south sides. The roads are connected by east and west roads within the cemetery. The landscaping is mainly old trees and a few small bushes.

Appears to be well maintained. The arrangement appears to be in rows but the rows are often not aligned.Surveyor(s) EARL M. DUNNSurvey date 11/14/2004Photographer EARL M. DUNNDate 11/14/2004 Photo no. _____

Galilean Fishermen Cemetery at Lincoln Park

Montgomery Co., MD

This cemetery was started in 1917 by the efforts of the members of Rockville Eureka Tabernacle # 29, a local chapter of a fraternal group known as the Order of the Galilean Fishermen. It is located on land in Lincoln Park acquired by a deed of Jun 12, 1917 from Margaret Griffith to the Eureka Tabernacle, recorded in Montgomery County land records in liber 264 folio 199, for two acres of land; and does not appear to have been added to. The apparent object was to provide a larger, more readily available burial site for the use of the Tabernacle members, as well as to reduce the need for back-yard burials; and it succeeded in eliminating most other private burial sites in the area.

The Eureka Tabernacle has ceased to exist, there are no known living members of the group and in spite of efforts to locate any interment records, which may have been kept by the Tabernacle, no such records have been found. At present, the only known interment records are privately kept. One such private record, covering the period from May 31, 1936 through Jul 23, 1992, follows.

There is no estimate of the number of interments made in the Cemetery in it's early years, there are a number of unmarked sites, which appear to be graves.

The present maintenance of the Cemetery is by the Mt. Calvary Baptist Church of Lincoln Park.
