Sat. Morn
29th

Janet, Dear —
Backwards; yes! means the same.

What a surprise on such a gloomy day — to be rain ahead for the whole week end — it says.

Just got out of bed for the "umph" time as I read & watch T.V. — both.
Also, trying to keep legs warm — This apt floor must be $\frac{1}{2}$ " from the floor — It's draughty !! And I never got my heater fixed.

O.K. here's to you @ news.
1- Yes, send me a Will: "flier" —
Can you remember if Kemps Turners Carrolls & Rabbitts were listed?

The trouble is, I can't find out if my early folks were renters or owners of property.

That is before 1850 ^{Kemp's} ~~Property~~ What did people do in the early days ^{if} no Will? The Court take over? Well, there should be a record —
Will be looking for "fliers"!

②

Yes, I knew where Kemp's family grave yard was —
Had been to house ^(outside) before the Indian Sp. people bought the property. On my next trip all gone — That's when a man told me the neighbors had gotten the loose tombstones and used for steps to their bungalows
The next trip — no bungalows could I get to — fanned off —

Please, go find what you can — If there's a way to get Geo T. stone, let me know

I don't blame Cost — as that story was a "hand-me-down" to all later generations.

even put it in my article⁽²⁾
There were several Geo Kemp's

Do I know your lady??

His birth would be 1854, the brother to my grandmother.

I can't understand why my grandmother was buried in R. Cr. at Forest Glen, when the private Kemp was still in use. She had moved from the homestead, as her son (another) had ruined her thru notes. Sorry to say bad news, but John Peter who married your Thompson line -

I was told by the same man that the bill-dozers came in & destroyed house, & grave yard covering most of tombstones with dirt.
Maybe the rains have washed the soil from Geo T.'s stone.

Please get all the data you can find.

Geo T. might have gone to Georgia & returned as was supposed to have died of T. B. _____ (His brother Alex died)

The other Geo Kemp was a brother to Jacob Sr — & he had a son too, named George W. and Geo W.

had a son ^{Geo} ^{crippled} that died in Va. I heard — with a list of children.

③ Also, who were those Kemps around Redland some years back — I don't think they belonged to the late James Kemp (where Damascus?)

Now as to me & my "Trees" — All are in bags. Typist hasn't done one thing since early spring and I was getting to the point of zeroing Turners & Kemps all unfinished

My health keeps me a non workable person in going places —

Typist's mother senile & ailing moved to son's — and now is in Presby. Home in Lancaster and walking unsteady.

Here is Laura's telep No.
if you ever want to call:

Laura's a Co. girl but doesn't know all about my "Trees"

The grave yard was by hillside facing now Randolph Rd. or east.

Our second trip was to get a picture of house. Of course gone

What we thought was Kemp grave yard. Turned out to be Mullican (?)

So, we cousins could have seen tombstones on our 1st trip when we went up to the empty house. Our bad luck!!

Listen, as you didn't tell me your lady's name — I'm giving you one to call and see what she tells you.
Much younger than I — Spent her life's work at Rockville Ct. House. Lawyers couldn't do without — But she retired — Her mother died last year, but maybe Louise can recall talk — I've been to see her several times & got no where. (not lately) from my address book — but, I can't find either her's or her husband's listed in new telephone Bk — They live on Randolph Rd. between Colesville + Glenmont, where all is torn up while widening the Hwy —

She was a Walden — been on twice.

I'm so glad to hear from you —
What's the price of book?

Don't even go to any Libraries.
Did take a friend to locate "Later Day Saints" for her — She's a DC. girl — on Randolph Rd — I just looked at books while she worried over the dull films.

All places are much better now, than when I started out — Even Montg Co Hist Soc.

Write soon — Virginia
