COMMENTS
Suggestions for follow-up:
• This could benefit from a cleanup. Debris, discarded trash, and plants surround the cemetery
Safety issues, invasive vegetation removal, fence removal/restoration, signage, trash, erosion, vandalism:
• Many groundhog holes and fallen trees
Anything of significance about this cemetery?
• Property was owned by William Etchison and passed to his son, Lloyd. Eventually it was acquired by Basil Warfield but he is buried at the Mount Lebanon Fellowship Church cemetery down the street.

NOTE: Perry Etchison was buried at the Etchison family cemetery on Long Corner because when he died in 1895 he no longer owned the farm where his children were buried [ID #298]. He lost that farm around 1870-something when it was seized by the sheriff as a result of a law suit by the Chandlee family that went on for many years. My ancestor, Elijah Hilton, bought the farm from the sheriff sometime around 1879-80. (Source: Bill Hilton, myboygriff@gmail.com)
