Description: (markers, materials, arrangement, landscaping/vegetation, fence, paths and roads, etc.)
• Based on historical aerial photographs, there appears to be a prominent land feature directly in line with Denit Estate Drive, through the former house location, and down to the property's edge at the reservoir.
• Area covered with periwinkle and surrounded by planted trees in a "V" formation.
• Groundhog holes
• Possible hand-carved grave marker, though broken.
