9. Description: The main block of the brick house is five bays with a central entrance. At the east end are double external chimneys with stone bases and brick stacks. The doorway has a six light transom and four light side-lights. The windows are six-over-six (on the first floor) and six-over-six (on the second floor) double hung sash.

The house has been extensively remodeled with new wings added at the south end, the facade stuccoed, the porch removed, and other alterations.

Behind the house are a log smoke house, a log dairy house, a double log corn crib, and a bankbarn on a stone foundation with vertical board siding and louvered windows.

10. Significance: This property lies on the south side of Comus Road, facing the extensive holdings owned by the Pearré family from the mid-18th century. William Pearré, the great grandson of the original Pearré settler, James, purchased this tract in 1842 and sold it to his son James in 1857. James probably built the farmhouse soon after, and in 1860 married Ann Delashmutt. They managed a prosperous farm for the next 50 years, and at their deaths their son Franklin A. purchased the property in 1914. He then granted a 1/5 interest to each of his three sisters and brother, George. In 1934 Franklin and his three sisters conveyed their interests to their brother George who owned the farm until his death in 1948. Since 1968 it has been owned by Mr. and Mrs. William Sharon Farr, who have granted an conservation easement over the entire property to the Maryland Environmental Trust.

SPECIFIC DATES 1857-60 BUILDER/ARCHITECT James Pearré

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The James Pearré House, situated in the shadow of Sugarloaf Mountain, was, for nigh on a century, inhabited by members of the Pearré family, substantial agriculturalists and prominent citizens of early upper Montgomery County.

In 1842, William Pearré purchased at public auction, for $640, 160 acres, parts of "Self Defense" and "Italy".¹ This parcel William Pearré sold to his son James in 1857 for $2,200, and it is believed that shortly afterward James constructed the oldest section of the present house.²

James Pearré was married in 1860 to Ann Rebecca Delashmutt, and, for the better part of the next fifty years the Pearres farmed their property. Ann Pearré died in 1909; her husband James in 1912, intestate. Consequently, in 1914, the various heirs-at-law of James Pearré brought the property before the Montgomery County Courts, which ordered a sale of the property as a whole, with the proceeds to be equitably distributed among the heirs. The handbill for the sale, held on September 1, 1914, described the property as

...223 acres, 1 rood and 26 perches...improved by a large spacious dwelling house, the late residence of James Pearre , containing 12 rooms, large halls, cellar and fine porches; Bank barn 45 by 70 feet, double corn house and wagon shed, cement dairy and other necessary outbuildings. This tract is further improved by a comfortable 7 room dwelling house, barn 35 by 25 feet and outbuildings. This tract is especially well watered, pure spring water being forced to the mansion house by means of a hydraulic ram... the farm contains two fine apple orchards of the finest variety of apples.³

At the sale, the farm was purchased by Franklin A. Pearré, son of James, for $15,750.⁵⁸; a price which included "1/2 interest in the growing crop of corn (the landlord's share) now growing on said farm".⁴ Almost immediately following the sale, Franklin Pearré granted a 1/5 interest to each of his brothers and sisters, George Pearré, Jr., Lydia, ellie and Jennie Pearré, reserving for himself a 1/5 interest.⁵ In 1934, however, Franklin Pearré and his sisters conveyed their interest in the property to George, Jr. who owned the farm until his death in 1948.⁶

SUBJECT: Approved and Adopted May 1983 Amendment to the Master Plan for Historic Preservation

MARYLAND HISTORICAL TRUST

P.B.

I am pleased to transmit to you the May 1983, Approved and Adopted Amendment to the Master Plan for Historic Preservation.

This amendment designates fourteen historic resources for preservation and protection under the County's Historic Preservation Ordinance, Chapter 24A of the Montgomery County Code. In addition, it identifies 83 sites that have been reviewed and found not suitable for regulation under the Ordinance. Those properties listed on the Locational Atlas and Index of Historic Resources in Montgomery County, Maryland are also exempted from any further regulation under the Moratorium on Alteration and Demolition, Section 24A-10 of the Preservation Ordinance.

Please adjust your records to reflect this action. Should you have any questions concerning this amendment, please do not hesitate to contact Marty Reinhart of Community Planning North at 565-7354.

PB:MR:sdr
Enclosure

Board. Upon receiving a recommendation from the Historic Preservation Commission, the Planning Board will hold a public hearing to make its determination using the same criteria, considering the purposes of the Ordinance, and balancing the importance of the historic property with other public interests.

If the Planning Board decides to place the historic resource on the Master Plan, it will then recommend a master plan amendment to the County. The County Council may hold a hearing before it acts, if appropriate. Upon approval by the Council and adoption by the Planning Board of the proposed amendment, the historic resource would then become designated on the Master Plan, and, thus, subject to the protection of the Ordinance.

THE AMENDMENT

The purpose of this proposed Amendment is to add several historic sites and resources to chapter 4 of the Master Plan for Historic Preservation, and to create a new Appendix, listing historic sites or resources which have been determined not suitable for regulation under the Historic Preservation Ordinance, Chapter 24A of the Montgomery County Code.

The following historic sites and resources are recommended for inclusion in chapter 4: (A map of the site's location is provided on the page indicated.)

10/48 Kingsley School (p. 8)

- 1893 -- Unaltered one-room school house.
- Typical of the County's system in the late 1800's.
- The entire parcel of 1.9 acres is designated with a potential to reduce the environmental setting to one acre, the land area historically associated with one-room school houses.

12/2 Harris Houses (p. 9)

- 19th century farmstead associated with the Hays/Harris families, early settlers of the Barnesville area.
- Both houses are examples of the sectional growth of log dwellings later expanded by frame additions.
- Because the acreage associated with this site is protected under a conservation easement, the site is designated with an environmental setting for approximately 8.5 acres to include the main house and yards, the tenant house, and the bank barn along with the substantial vegetation and environmental features (portion of the stream valley) which define the farmstead.

12/5 James Pearre Farm (p. 9)

- Mid-19th century brick farmhouse with unusual double external chimneys.

- Associated with the Pearre family, early agriculturalists and prominent citizens of upper Montgomery County.
 - Because the acreage associated with this site is protected under a conservation easement, the site is designated with an environmental setting of approximately 6.7 acres to include the main house, the log dairy, the corn crib, and bank barn as features representative of the historic farmstead.
- 14/41 Goshen Mennonite Church (p. 10)
- 1870 -- Unique brick structure, based on a design by Washington architect, Walter West, and built by master builder S. G. Henseley.
 - Site of one of the oldest Methodist Episcopal Churches in Montgomery County.
 - The parcel includes, in addition to the church building, a cemetery and semi-circular tree-shaded drive with wrought iron entrance gates, all of which contribute to the churchyard setting. The entire parcel should, therefore, be retained as the environmental setting.
- 14/59 Fertile Meadows (p. 10)
- Fine example of a late 18th century County farmhouse with a "distinctive southern Maryland flavor."
 - Associated for nearly a century with the Riggs family, prominent businessmen and farmers in Montgomery County.
 - An appropriate setting should include the main house, the log meat house and corn crib, plus sufficient land to protect the complex from future development.
- 14/60 Riggs/Wilcoxon House (p. 10)
- Late 18th century, simple Federal style farmhouse with Flemish bond brickwork.
 - Example of typical tenant farmhouse once found throughout the County.
- 15/65 Waters Gift (p. 11)
- Mid-18th century altered log farmhouse.
 - Associated with the Waters family, early settlers of the northeastern part of the County.
- 22/17 Flint Hill II (p. 12)
- Early 19th century log and frame farmhouse.
 - Associated with the Bowie family, a prominent family in Montgomery County and Maryland history.
